

www.mitchkruse.com

Why did Jesus come?

To fulfill the Law and Prophets (Matt. 5:17)

To call sinners (not righteous) (Matt. 9:13; Mk. 2:17; Lk. 5:32)

To bring a sword, not peace (Matt. 10:34-35; Lk. 12:51)

Rest for souls (Matt. 11:28-30)

To reward each person for what he has done (Matt. 16:27)

To serve and give his life as a ransom for many (Matt. 20:28; Mk. 10:45)

To announce the kingdom of heaven (Mk. 1:15)

To make fishers of men (Mk. 1:17)

To preach (Mk. 1:38)

To seek and save that which is lost (Lk. 19:10)

To bring light (Jn. 3:19; 12:46)

To seek worship in spirit and truth (Jn. 4:23-24)

To do the will of the Father which is resurrection on the last day for all who believe (Jn. 6:38-40; 17:4)

To teach (Jn. 7:16)

For judgment, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind (Jn. 9:39)

To give life to the full (Jn. 10:10)

To die and resurrect to pay for sin (forgiveness of sin) (Jn. 3:13-15; 12:23-24, 27)

To save the world, not to judge it (Jn. 12:47)

To prepare a place (Jn. 14:3)

To make a home in those who love the Father and Him (Jn. 14:23)

www.mitchkruse.com

To bring grace and truth (Jn. 1:17)

To testify to the truth (Jn. 18:37)

To preach good news to the poor (Lk. 4:18)

To proclaim freedom for the prisoners (Lk. 4:18)

To proclaim recovery of sight for the blind (Lk. 4:18)

To release the oppressed (Lk. 4:18)

To proclaim the year of the Lord's favor (Lk. 4:19)